

From the Leadership Team

Dear Parents, Students, Staff, Past Students, Past Staff and Community,

Anzac Day provides us with an opportunity to remember the service of many to the protection and preservation of the nation of Australia. However, this day is also a time to reflect upon the motivations for and realities of war, in the hope that Australians continue to pursue peace and resolve conflicts through diplomacy and negotiation. We commemorated this day in a College Assembly on Wednesday and students and staff marched in our school group on Thursday at Camp Hill and Wynnum. Much praise was afforded to our students from members of the public who attended these marches. They spoke of the respect and dignity of our students and the poise and high regard they showed for their College throughout the morning. I thank the members of our community who participated in either gathering.

On a much lighter note, this is the week of the Senior Formal. Our young ladies will certainly be beautiful, elegant and fashionable on Friday night. The Habit of Spirit for this week is Passionately Engaging in Life—no doubt that sentiment will come alive at this event. We look forward to sharing the evening with them and meeting the young people that they have chosen as their partners.

We were successful last term in our application for a Brisbane Catholic Education project in the area of literacy support. This exciting project is titled Write-up and will be headed in our College by Middle Leader—Learning and Teaching, Mrs Cara Robinson-Taylor. She will be joined by Mr Peter Barber and Ms Gabe Lang. The project will focus on Year 8 as this is the year identified in which factors can impede student academic growth eg adolescent cognitive developmental change. There has been an impact on staffing as a result of this project. A new teacher of Science and Religion will commence at the College in the coming weeks.

Whilst awaiting news of the birth of her baby from Mrs Kim Blake who left at the end of the term, we welcome Mrs Elise Godwin back to the College from Maternity Leave. In other staffing news, we also farewell Ms Sally Hall from our College next Friday. She has been instrumental in providing marketing directions for the past four years. We congratulate her on her new position and wish her well for the future.

God's blessing for the week ahead,

Mrs Shelley Hamilton
Principal

Religious Life of the School

ANZAC Day Commemorations

On Wednesday, we gathered as a college community for an ANZAC Day ceremony lead beautifully by our Student Leaders. We then had a number of students represent San Sisto at the Camp Hill and Manly/Lota marches on Thursday. We are proud of all students and staff who attended these marches, and others who represented different groups. Well done girls!

St Catherine of Siena Feast Day

Next Tuesday we will celebrate St Catherine of Siena's Feast Day. Catherine was considered to be a revolutionary leader of her time and was not afraid of people's perceptions. She had absolute and total faith in God. Fearlessly, she had the courage to challenge the Pope, and played a significant role in the Pope returning to Rome. She would often facilitate between political leaders and families. She had a real vision for peace and did what she felt was necessary to achieve peace in her own time.

Catherine is known to live a life of contemplation and action. She spoke of the "power of two feet" that action and contemplation go hand in hand.

Below is St Catherine's prayer – may it guide us always.

*O Holy Spirit, come into my heart;
By your power draw it to yourself, God,
And give me charity with fear.
Guard me, Christ, from every evil thought,
And so warm and enflame me again
With your most gentle love that every suffering may seem light to me.
My holy father and my gentle Lord,*

*Help me in my every need. Christ love!
Christ love!*

Have a great week!

Assistant Principal Religious Education

Term 2 Begins

It has been a busy start to Term 2 at San Sisto College.

Just a reminder about our expectations regarding attendance at San Sisto College.

We anticipate there will be times your child may be unwell or that events happen in families where a day out is needed. Outside of holidays, we would expect for the average student, no more than 10 days absence from school across the year. If your child has been or is going to be absent outside of these expected parameters, we would urge you to please get in contact with your daughter's School Coordinator as soon as possible. Or, alternatively, if the information surrounding their reason for absence is particularly sensitive, you may wish to contact our Guidance Counsellor in the WELL. Please keep this in mind, and keep us informed.

Our Verigram article in Term 1 highlighted some of the reasons you as parents may run into difficulties meeting our expectations for attendance. These include:

- Physical Illness
- Truancy
- Parentally condoned absences (holidays or home responsibilities)

- School refusal

As was mentioned in Term 1, we are fully aware that when a student falls into the category of school refusal this is generally quite a difficult time for the family. It is of paramount importance that you receive the support needed to help manage your own feelings around this, as it requires a lot of strength in parents to transition your child back to full time learning once they have been school refusing. The behaviours and emotions you will witness in your daughter can be quite extreme, stressful and confusing.

A reminder again, you have chosen a school that is invested in the wellbeing of your child. We will always do our very best to mitigate any issues that may be preventing your child from accessing their education. It may be the case that your daughter needs additional supports, or even a modified transition program, to help get them back into the classroom. Your child has a right to a full education, and it is a government requirement that your child be engaged in full-time learning (before age 16) or full-time earning. For some this is harder than for others and we are here to support families with meeting this requirement.

If your child is struggling with the transition back, for whatever reason, we would like to know. Please do not leave things until they become unmanageable. The sooner we know of your concerns, the sooner we can offer the supports needed, or direct you to the people/organisations who can help. The full and complete education of your daughter is our primary objective.

Best wishes for a fulfilling Term 2.

Assistant Principal Student Wellbeing

Open Day 2019

Our Open Day this year is on Sunday 19 May from 1 pm until 4 pm. Many girls will be required to attend on this day. Our students act as guides, performers, participants, exhibitors, communicators, musicians, presenters and a whole lot more.

All girls in attendance are required to wear their full College uniform (unless specifically directed to wear an alternative dress. Teachers will advise your daughter of her tasks for the day. Some girls may not have rostered duties — they will not be required to come, but are most welcome.

With the smell of food and the sound of music in the air, there will be plenty to see, experience, do, taste and listen to at the San Sisto College Open Day 2019.

School Visits Program

We at San Sisto College have much for which to be thankful. The Year 10 Peer Mentors have been visiting our local Brisbane Catholic Education Primary Schools, to educate the Year 3 students about our Dominican heritage and of course, show them how wonderful it is being a part of the San Sisto College Community.

For San Sisto College, developing closer relationships with our Catholic primary schools is an essential step to assist in the social and emotional wellbeing of younger students as they become ready for the eventual transition from primary to secondary school. By providing this "shared" platform, we have found our senior students communicate their experiences of San Sisto's curriculum, co-curricular, unique programs, social groups and events, and teaching approaches, in a way the younger students relate with. Our students then invite the younger students to take advantage of the many events the College holds each year such as Open Day, to experience what it means to be a San Sister for themselves.

Several of our talented college musical artists have performed for the Year 3 students. They have spoken with great pride about our College and have presented themselves in a manner that is most pleasing. The Year 3 students have been thrilled to talk to the "Big Girls" and were in awe watching the musical performances.

Primary school students laughter is infectious and our students have been enjoying the opportunity to spend time with the younger students. One could only feel a sense of gratitude for the wonderful students that we have, for the girls who are so full of spirit, who have so much energy and spirit of fun.

Cyber Safety

Social Media Parent Information Night

Monday 13 May in the Siena Centre from 7.00 – 8.30 pm.

San Sisto College in conjunction with Eyes Open Social Media (a registered provider with the Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner) is offering you a unique opportunity to gain hands on practical advice on how to significantly reduce your daughter's and your own risks while using social media sites.

Tricia Munn will facilitate the session and is one of Australia's most specialised educators within this field. Tricia passionately believes in giving you workable solutions and guarantees that you will walk away from the session with some invaluable tools which you can immediately put into practice.

The session will cover the main cyber safety risks and dangers including predators, inappropriate material, bullying and digital footprints and how to manage and report issues.

The program will also cover the most popular sites accessed by students, how what you do online can put your children at risk and practical steps that you can take to improve your own and your children's safety through the use of site security settings.

Having you attend this session will also help reinforce the messages and commitment San Sisto College has made this year through the ongoing support of Eyes Open Social Media to keeping our students cyber-safe.

Highland Music

During the second week of the holidays, Eliza Rogers competed in the 115th highland gathering in Mclean in northern New South Wales.

The gathering goes over two days, with the first day a solo competition in which Eliza competed in C grade Tenor drumming. Eliza performed three different pieces of music - March, Strathspey and Reel. She has been studying these pieces over that last 12 months.

Eliza said she then had to, "perform and compete against another four competitors on the following day. At the end of the day when the results were announced it was shown that I had placed 1st."

Congratulations, Eliza.

NCCD

Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (NCCD)

Every year, all schools in Australia participate in the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (NCCD). The NCCD process requires schools to identify information already available in the school about supports provided to students with disability. These relate to legislative requirements under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 and the Disability Standards for Education 2005, in line with the NCCD guidelines (2019).

Information provided about students to the Australian Government for the NCCD includes:

- year of schooling
- category of disability: physical, cognitive, sensory or social/emotional
- level of adjustment provided: support provided within quality differentiated teaching practice, supplementary, substantial or extensive.

This information assists schools to:

- formally recognise the supports and

Australian Government

Equal access to education
Make it count with the NCCD.

NCCD
NATIONALLY CONSISTENT COLLECTION OF DATA ON SCHOOL STUDENTS WITH DISABILITY

adjustments provided to students with disability in schools

- consider how they can strengthen the support of students with disability in schools
- develop shared practices so that they can review their learning programs in order to improve educational outcomes for students with disability.

The NCCD provides state and federal governments with the information they need to plan more broadly for the support of students with disability.

The NCCD will have no direct impact on your child and your child will not be involved in any testing process. The school will provide data to the Australian Government in such a way that no individual student will be able to be identified – the privacy and confidentiality of all students is ensured. All information is protected by privacy laws that regulate the collection, storage and disclosure of personal information.
